

Mr. and Mrs. Thor at Port Hueneme Home

Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Gayle Thor are now at home at their new residence in Port Hueneme following their recent honeymoon in Idaho and Canada.

The newlyweds were married by Rev. Gerald W. Garlid at a double ring ceremony at the Lutheran Church of Good Shepherd late in June.

The bride, the former Sandra Mae Rizzo, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex J. Rizzo, 5230 Torrance Blvd., was given in marriage by her father.

Her ballerina length lace gown featured a scalloped neckline and was complemented by a pearl crown and tulle veil. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink carnations and white gardenias.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was her sister, Patricia Rizzo.

Carrying a bouquet of white carnations, Miss Rizzo was dressed in a light green taffeta gown styled with a lace bodice and matching cummerbund.

Albert K. Gordon, best man and usher, served the bridegroom, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gustav E. Thor of Lewistown, Idaho.

A reception was given the newlyweds at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremonies. Miss Diane Rizzo, the bride's sister, acted as registrar for the guests attending.

The young Mrs. Thor is a graduate of Inglewood High School and has attended El Camino College during the past year.

The bridegroom graduated from high school in Idaho and is now stationed at the Naval Testing Center at Point Magu.

Dads to Join Parade at Twins Picnic

A parade of proud papas and their twin offspring will be a highlight of South Bay Mothers of Twins picnic, July 26 at El Retiro Park.

Picnic festivities will begin with a free coffee hour at 10 a. m. with games for the kids and their fathers planned to take place throughout the day.

More than 200 youngsters are expected to converge on the picnic grounds, where ice cream for all will be provided by the Knudsen Dairy Co.

Contests for the oldest, the youngest, most like and most unlike twins will be held, according to Mrs. Victor Heath, chairman.

The twin and father parade will be held at 12:30 p. m., with close of the day's events scheduled for 4 p. m.

Among the twins present will be the two sets of the James Fagnano family. Mr. and Mrs. Fagnano boast a total of six girls, which includes twins Patricia and Rosemarie, 8 years of age, and Debra and Denise, 5 years. Their other daughters are Virginia, 10, and Linda Lee, 2½.

Newlyweds at Home Following Honeymoon

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Tinseth are now at home at 5946 Orange Ave., Long Beach, following their honeymoon trip to Lake Tahoe.

Wedding ceremonies uniting the young couple were held at Christ Lutheran Church with Pastor Paul Imshweiler officiating.

The young Mrs. Tinseth is the former Ruth Ann Shipton, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Shipton of 1940 180th Pl., Torrance.

For the wedding, she wore a gown of white lace of ballerina length and carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a removable orchid corsage.

The bride's sister, Carol, wore a yellow taffeta gown styled with a chiffon drape. Bridesmaids Janice Running and Nancy Vail wore identical gowns with little Linda Patecy serving as the flower girl.

Myron Schwelling acted as best man with ushers Donald and Gary Tinseth, the bridegroom's brothers, completing the wedding party.

Miss Marlene Tinseth registered the guests at the reception which followed. Out-of-state guests included Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Shipton of Youngstown, Ohio.

The bride graduated from Compton High School and the bridegroom from Leuzinger.
